21,000 SEE F.K. AUSTRIA BEAT FERENCVAROS 3-2

A bumper crowd of 21,000 fans madly cheered both visiting European teams, F.K. Austria and Ferencvaros, on to the field for their match at the Sydney Cricket Ground last Saturday.

THE Austrians defeated the Hungarians 3-2 in a thriller which experts and veterans described as the most technically perfect soccer match ever played in Sydney.

Hungarian Helps Austria.
Imre Mathess, a former Hungarian Junior International, who remained in Vienna after a soccer tour which ended during the Hungarian revolution, was signed by F.K. Austria just before the team left for Australia.

He played inside-left last week and scored two goals against his compatriots from Budapest. Hungary was first to score when Mate Fenyvesi, Fradi's brilliant outside-left, beat Austrian full-back Rappl with one of his typical high-speed dummies and shot accurately for the net corner at an angle which gave Julius Ondreicska no chance to save.

Austria's reply was disputed when Alfred Malik, F.K. Austria's centre-forward, received and scored from an off-side position, but Referee Mrdjen ruled that the ball had previously touched a defender, which played Malik on-side.

Mathess scored Austria's second goal just before half-time with a terrific shot from the left wing which found the upper right-hand corner of the net.

His second goal was scored from a scrimmage in the penalty area in the second half.

A Decider?

Thus the Australian matches between the two teams ended one-all. Mr. W. R. Thomas, Chairman of the Victorian Association, and an executive member of the Australian Association, stated early this week that he would attempt to arrange a third and deciding match between the visiting champions.

Meeting Rooms.

ADVICE has been received from the Young Men's Christian Association of Melbourne that, due to extensive renovations, meeting rooms cannot be obtained for the remainder of season 1957. It is desired to place on record the co-operation we have received in the past from the Y.M.C.A., and in particular Mr. J. Mitchell.

Laws of the Game.

Circular received from the Australian Soccer Football Association: "Laws of the game in force for season 1957-58. We have the honour to inform you officially that, at its meeting of June 15, 1957, held at Portrush, the International F.A. Board decided no alterations in the Laws of the Game. The Laws of the Game are, therefore, the same as for season 1956-57.

"We would take this opportunity of drawing again your attention to the provisions of Art. 37 of the Statutes stipulating that each member of the F.I.F.A. must play football according to the Laws of the Game promulgated by the International F.A. Board."

Dockerty Cup.

The third round of the Dockerty Cup will be played next Saturday, August 3, 1957. The draw is on page 11.

FIGURES PROVE 1957 TOP LEAGUE TOUGH

EVERY club in the First Division this year has been strong enough to make things tough for its fellow clubs in the Division. The five teams currently on the lower half of the ladder have collectively collared a far better percentage of wins, draws, goals and points than their counterparts of 1956.

Here is a comparison between the two years, after 13 rounds, of the percentages of the League's totals won by the Lower Five:—

	W.	D.	Losses	For.	Agst.	Points.
	%	%	%	%	%	%
1956	31½	27	78	35½	64	31
1957	38	37½	67	42½	56	39

A further comparison between ladder totals of the Upper Five for the 13 rounds in the two seasons, and those of the Lower Five, is even more revealing:—

UPPER FIVE.
	W.	D.	L.	F.	A.	P.
1956	37	16	12	204	113	90
1957	33	15	18	143	108	81

LOWER FIVE.
	W.	D.	L.	F.	A.	P.
1956	17	6	42	113	204	40
1957	21	9	36	106	141	51

It can be seen that, at this stage last year, the Lower Five had conceded 63 more goals and six more losses than they have this year, and that this year's Lower Five have won four more games, three more draws, and 11 more points than last year's.

It should be quite easy now to start an argument as to whether all this is due to a stronger Lower Five or a weaker Upper Five.

Outsiders Taken Inside Learn About Offside

The seven or eight V.I.P.'s present at the recent international match, Hungary v. Austria, included Mr. A. Caldwell, M.H.R., Olympic Park Trustees, and other nabobs.

Their knowledge of soccer was exceedingly limited, and Mr. Bill Thomas, Chairman of the Victorian Association, spent the afternoon explaining the A.B.C.'s of the game to the visitors as the match progressed.

They seemed surprised to learn that a dummy was not merely something used to keep a baby quiet, and that a player is still inside, not outside, when offside.

Selectors—Attention!

With the Victoria v. China match scheduled for a fortnight hence, State selectors could do a lot worse than get a good look at Remo Guardiani's form at centre-half with Juventus to-morrow.

And for Rein Yntema's replacement at centre-forward, Tony Karayannis, of Hellenic, rates a thought.

UNSAFE CLEARANCE

Penzo punches clear of Godding's attempted header in last Saturday's match at Olympic Park, but Pangrazio (foreground) and Gennari (at rear) move to ensure complete disposal.

JOE LACHMANN.

Veteran Joe Lachmann led the Seaside to a shock win over Wilhelmina last Saturday, successfully converted two penalty kicks, and finished up at the club's social that night singing "Tipperary" in Czechoslovakian.

Sent Off!

Adjudged to have committed a deliberate foul in that he attempted to assault members' ears with a song at the Brighton "do" last Saturday night, Morrie Buckner was "sent off" by compere, Bill Thomas, Jr. At a subsequent disciplinary session, Mrs. Buckner suspended him for life — from singing at socials!

LOVE HAS A MANY- SPLENDOURED STING!

Plaintive Query from Club Secretary

(To the Editor.)

SIR,—I have a problem which could develop into a case of alienation of affection.

Since there is no Dorothy Dix on your staff, I am taking the liberty of writing in the hope that you yourself can guide me in this matter.

My problem concerns the puzzling actions of the committee-men of a certain First Division club — I'd rather not mention the name, but it's the club which looks like winning the Senior Pennant this year.

So that I won't be misunderstood, I hasten to say how much I appreciate their unselfish kindness in thoughtfully handing out some free tickets for their club dances to a few of our star players after matches at Olympic Park.

But our star players are puzzled and ask me why they are given the free tickets. I explain to them that these committee-men are kind and considerate gentlemen who are anxious about the social welfare of newly arrived Hungarian soccer stars, and wish to help them to become assimilated into local ways quickly and easily.

One nasty-minded person in my club has made the outrageous suggestion that the free tickets could be an attempt to assimilate a few of our best players into the First Division club concerned. That, of course, is unthinkable!

Some of our lesser players and reserves are very jealous, and wonder why they aren't given free tickets, too.

I rebuke them, of course. But I hope you won't think that I'm jealous, too, when I confess that I began to wonder why, when the free ticket hand-out was made to our best players again after the game last Sunday, neither our President, Mr. Andry, nor myself received one.

Can you help me? Can you tell me why only our star players are wanted at this club's dances?—Yours, etc.,

V. MANSON, Hon. Sec.,
Melbourne Soccer Club.

39 Willgah Street,
East St. Kilda.

[I have no idea why the club in question does what it does. No doubt eight or nine thousand readers could tell you, though, and it is hoped that you will forgive the broad liberties taken with your letter.—Editor.]

PUBLICITY FOR SOCCER IS PUNY! WHY?

Hundreds of soccer fans query the scarcity of publicity for soccer. This letter we publish is typical, and the answers below make a discouraging story.

SIR,—When are we going to get a Publicity Officer? If we have one already, when is he going to get some ideas? I suggest he has a talk with his opposite number in the Rugby Union set-up.—Yours, etc.,

J. T. ASHENHURST.

71 Quinn's Road,
East Bentleigh.

Good questions, Mr. Ashenhurst, with or without the belittling sarcasm. Here are the answers:

The Association has a Publicity Officer. He is an experienced advertising man, a practised publicist, and public relations expert.

In answer to your second question — he gets plenty of ideas.

Now, if you'd had these two answers previously, your third question would naturally have been: "Then why don't we see the results of his work?" The answer to this telling question is what you really want to know.

Firstly, it is necessary to state that Victoria is the only State in Australia in which soccer fights an almost hopeless battle for publicity. It is the greatly feared and despised victim of the most powerful sporting movement in Victoria — the senior body of Rules football, the Victorian Football League.

When one remembers that the League was originally a breakaway body which grew sufficiently powerful to practically destroy its parent, the Football Association, its full strength is realized.

But when one finds, in addition to this, that editorial and pictorial authorities in every publicity channel — the daily and weekly Press, weekly periodicals, the radio, film news-producers, and TV — are all fervent supporters of Rules football, and share the fear of soccer, one begins to realise what our Publicity Officer is up against.

It was the Victorian Publicity Officer who prepared the first national Press release on the visiting Hungarians. He can show you page after page of editorial matter and pictures published in every State — except Victoria!

He arranged for editorial and pictorial coverage of the arrivals, the comings and goings, and the play of the visiting teams. Except for the usual brief Saturday previews and Monday reviews in the dailies, nothing was published.

Killed!

Even the "human interest" angle is "killed." He arranged for a party of Hungarians to visit the injured Rein Yntema in Prince Henry's Hospital, and made certain that photographers from both morning papers were present. The pictures were "killed."

The only support readily obtainable for soccer has so far been the "foreign language" Press and some of the suburban weekly Press, and we are truly grateful to those journals.

A recent example of the attitude of the Press was "Truth's" attack on soccer in the matter of grounds. When given the other side of the story, they did not publish it — they "killed" the reply lest it justified soccer in some small way. ("Soccer News," 20/7/57.)

As a publicist, our Publicity Officer knows that where soccer is concerned he must shoot at the target 50 times to score once. That is a hopelessly discouraging percentage, but he keeps on trying.

Pretty Legs Favored

SPORTS like table tennis and swimming, where photographers can get shots of pretty girls' bare legs and attractive bosoms, get preferential pictorial treatment.

Unfortunately, soccer hasn't got the bosoms and bare legs of pretty girls to offer for publicity purposes, and if adequate news and pictorial coverage for the Ferencvaros and F.K. Austria visits was denied to us, what chance have we got with ordinary League soccer?

Apart from constant liaison with all soccer writers, our P.O. wormed his way into the daily paper with Australia's largest circulation, and watches his previews and reviews cut in half by the Editors.

Are you beginning to get the picture, Mr. Ashenhurst?

By the way, in case you're interested, the Association's Publicity Officer is Morrie Buckner, Editor of "Soccer News" and "Sun" soccer writer.

Richmond's left full-back, Kurt Wenzlaff, has been out with an injured leg. An enquiry about his absence brought some unexpected information. Kurt is an ex-member of the French Foreign Legion, and at one time he played with the French Army Selection side.

Yallourn is worried about the showing of their forwards against Richmond, particularly in view of the fact that they meet George Cross to-day.

★ Transfer of Csardas, Melbourne's centre-half, to J.U.S.T. failed to beat the June 30 deadline. Except for Sunday League appearances with Hungary, Csardas will now probably be on the sidelines for the rest of the season.

★ Jimmy Garrett, of Brighton, has been playing much improved football recently. Showing off to his brand new baby son?

★ Richmond's winning goal, the only goal in their match with Yalourn, came from a "free" about 35 yards out. Taking the paint from under the cross-bar, Phil Blunt had no chance with it. It was booted by new 19-year-old centre-forward, Guenther Weiland, late of Moreland's Reserves.

★ St. Albans has the wander-bug, caters to it, and thereby gains experience for its two teams. Visited Geelong, one team played "Victoria," the other played "Corio." Will shortly visit Bendigo to meet Bendigo United and Riverine Rangers.

VITI IN FORM

Juventus 'keeper, Viti, was really "hot" at the Showgrounds last Saturday. This shot of Viti was taken in this season's earlier Hakoah-Juventus match at Olympic Park, and shows him letting in an offside goal.

★ Coburg pleased as punch after privilege of hearing after-training lecture by State Coach, Len Young. Subjects: Field Problems and Training Methods.

★ J.U.S.T. has a new acquisition and expects improved technique from its team as a result — Hungarian Coach Markoc has taken over.

JUVENTUS IN NEW BID FOR TOP

ONE of the features of the last week's many surprise packets was the good form shown by Juventus in defeating Hakoah 3-1 at the Showgrounds.

Although its two early goals with the strong wind were splendid shots, bulk of the credit for the win belongs to the Italian defenders. They kept out the strongly attacking Hakoah until three minutes before the end, when Egger at last broke through for the Blues' only score.

Guardiani was brilliant at centre-half, and Viti in goal was in rare form. Marini at left full-back provided plenty of telling assistance.

After conceding the first two goals, Hakoah's defence meshed well, and kept Juventus subdued for 70 minutes.

The win brought Juventus right up to the leaders, and, while catching up with J.U.S.T., may be beyond them, the Italians' present form indicates that they could finish as runners-up.

J.U.S.T. conceded its second draw of the season to the same club which claimed the first — Box Hill. Comparison of the ladder statistics of these two clubs produces a question — how come? Although undoubtedly helped by the absence of Wilhelmina's goalie, Joe Ruyters, Brighton earned full marks for the courage and determination which upset the Dutchmen, 4-2.

It has been said that Brighton's two penalty goals were "lucky assists," but penalties awarded against desperate measures used to stall high-pressure attacks are well-earned, not "lucky."

Geelong proved its right to its high position on the ladder, and emphasised its earlier victory by again convincingly defeating Moreland 4-2 at Olympic Park.

Except for its lapse against Slavia three weeks ago, when Penzo was not available, Geelong has consistently produced the soundest defence in the League.

Good Team, Poor Management?

YARRA Park, outstanding leaders of the Third Division, were involved in a schemozzle last Saturday which ended in an abandoned Cup re-play with Maccabi, and which could indicate sloppy committee work.

The kick-off was delayed until 3.15 p.m., but even at that time Yarra Park could field only seven men. Players continued to arrive at intervals, and eventually a full team played — but the damage had been done.

Maccabi was leading, 2-1, at 75 minutes when their goalie, Dyskin, was allegedly attacked, a player was sent off, spectators invaded the field, and play was abandoned in confusion.

Richmond in Fight for Promotion

— Des Hamilton

RICHMOND's surprise 1-0 defeat of Yallourn last Saturday brought it right back into the fight for promotion between six of the 10 teams in the Second Division.

Although two of its rivals — George Cross and Hellenic — each have a game in hand, Richmond's burst of form, which enabled it to beat leaders, South Melbourne United and Yallourn in successive matches, could carry it into the First Division if sustained.

United and Yallourn both face tough matches to-day against Sunshine City and George Cross respectively. With the other challengers — Hellenic, Richmond, and Preston — apparently booked for victories, it is going to be difficult for the second and third place-holders to maintain their positions on the ladder.

Their incentive — the desperate need for points — may produce the necessary fire and will to win.

Players Wanted for Germany

The Richmond Soccer Club, which sponsors World Cup aspirant Germany, invites all German players to participate in to-morrow morning's practice at Survey Park, near the Burnley Station.

Players will gather at 10 a.m.

Australia Draws With China

In a hard-fought match before 10,000 spectators in Brisbane last Saturday, China equalised two minutes before full time to draw in the second Test match against Australia.

The Chinese team was the more polished of the two, but its attacks too frequently broke down near goal.

The Australian defence, led by former English professional, Joe Marston, was particularly tight, turning back most of the Chinese attacks.

McMillan and Kitching, both Queenslanders, recently seen in Melbourne, scored for Australia.

Vic. Colts in 10-Goal Victory Spree

— Paul Borg.

THE Victorian Colts went on a goal-getting rampage at the expense of luckless Sunshine United at Olympic Park last Saturday, and scored 10 times while keeping their own goal clean.

This win lifted them to the sixth rung on the ladder and within three points of the current League runner-up, Hayduk.

Actually, nine teams are in the running for Hayduk's second-place berth, with only six points separating them and eight rounds to go.

The dark horse at this stage could be Dandenong, in fifth place, only two points behind Hayduk, but with two matches more than the others yet to be played.

Coburg's 2-1 win over Frankston, playing with only 10 men, and after trailing 0-1, was a gallant effort. L. Sacco and J. Farrugia got the goals in Coburg's side, and Albers and Lymer were best for Frankston.

Moorabbin rose from the bottom of the ladder at long last when it shared six goals and the points with Hayduk.

With the home stretch ahead and every match a vital one, to-day's games should provide plenty of thrills and suspense.

Moreland is ruefully wondering why Geelong is so hard to score against. Four easy reasons — Penzo, Gennari, Salvalaggia, and Sabidussi.

'Hammers in Close Win Over Police

— Don Sutherland.

IN a vigorous, hard-fought game, Sandringham City proved that it cannot always be taken lightly by defeating Vic. Police, 4-3.

Sandringham led 2-0 at half-time, but defensive lapses in the second period nearly proved disastrous. The result remained in doubt until a solo effort by D. Hyndman brought the winning goal. West and Morton were best ahead for the Police, and J. Hyndman and J. Sullivan stood out for Sandringham.

Melbourne had another field day, this time against Port Melbourne, winning 10-0. The Hungarians have now rolled up a tally of 109 goals in 13 games.

To-day's game against Croatia will show how much Melbourne has improved since the first half of the season, when they dropped a point to the Croatians — the only club to earn this distinction to date.

The game was abandoned on that occasion because of a disturbance by spectators, and, in accordance with a ruling by League Management, police will be on hand to prevent any repetition of that rowdy scene by overzealous supporters.

Rosebud and Wilhelmina met in a robust game which Rosebud won 6-3, avenging an earlier narrow defeat.

Port Melbourne may prove to be too speedy and experienced to-day for Fernites Gully, who received a walk-over last week when G.M.H. were unable to field a team.

CAUGHT IN MID-LEAP

George Penzo, Geelong's goalkeeper, has the ability to leap and twist in mid-air like a cat — and here is photographic proof of the fact. He has just conceded a corner to Moreland in last Saturday's match.

WILL SPURS BE USED NEXT?

HIGHLY volatile temperament, accompanied by the unrestrained use of fists and boot-stops, is the fastest way to loss of reputation and oblivion in Victoria for ANY club, regardless of the quality of its soccer technique.

Whenever a class team, meeting stubborn and unaccustomed opposition, stoops to such childish practices, it must face the consequences.

And the consequences will most certainly be thrust upon them the first time they use unmanly tactics under a referee who WILL carry out his duty and uphold the laws of the game in the circumstances indicated above.

This is a gentle and well-meant caution to a club which will no doubt readily recognise the head which this cap was intended to fit.

That goes, for the referee concerned, too!

NOT A DRY EYE IN THE HOUSE

WHEN Brighton celebrated its victory with a "do" in the club rooms last Saturday night, the evening was rounded off with entertainment by players, members, and guests.

Gully's First Birthday

Fernree Gully was organised one year ago this month, and is mighty proud of its progress.

They will have an annual meeting shortly, and will decide then how to celebrate their first birthday.

They figure to have improved training conditions next year, and, with Melbourne promoted out of their League, they have high hopes for 1958.

St. Albans is very proud of its young forward line, three of the boys being 19 and the eldest 21. Youthful inside forward Bode Bormann notched eight goals for his team in the last three games.

Moreland has new lights installed at their ground, and reckon that Campbell Reserve is now the best ground in Melbourne for night training.

Looks like Scotland and Hungary will be provided with a special World Cup section of their own — they can then go on playing replays right into 1958 without holding up the rest of the competition.

The rending, rendering or rendition — have your choice — of a Maori love song by Life Member, Mr. Bill Thomas, Chairman of the Association, had the listeners in tears. Whether tears of laughter or pathos has not yet been ascertained.

Joe Lachmann's Czech number was a moving performance. Everybody moved to the exits.

Seriously, though, to hear French, Italian, Irish, Czech, Scottish, German, Dutch, Maori, and Australian songs from members of one club renews one's faith in the essential brotherhood of mankind.

Exclusive: The masterful defence of Ray Barotaja has weakened. He will announce his engagement to-day.

What would you do if you had three classy Hungarian players in your team, not yet quite at their top, but still potential match-winners, and every League point precious? Persevere with them? Send them back to the Reserves for a few more games? South Melbourne United has just that problem.

The "old men" of Czechoslovakia sure needed a grease job before taking the field last Sunday against Latvia. The creaks could be heard in the upper tier of the grandstand. All considered, the Czech veterans did pretty well to hold the Latvians down to a one-goal win.

It is a pleasure to be able to state that, with the exception of one Yarra Park player, the players of Maccabi, Yarra Park, J.U.S.T., and Box Hill behaved admirably when their matches were disturbed by spectators.
